

1 Significance of This Research

- Tackling Thailand's Aging Crisis
Aging population + poverty
- Analysing Singapore's CPF Model
Top ranking pension system in Asia
(includes housing and healthcare)
- Creating a Blueprint for Thailand
Key insights for Thai policymakers

2 Objectives

1. Analyze the success factors of CPF
2. Identify strengths and weaknesses of CPF from Singaporeans' perspectives
3. Evaluate the applicability in Thailand's demographic and economic context
4. Understand public perceptions
5. Formulate recommendations

3 Interview Results

4 Key focuses of the integration

1. Mandatory Pension Scheme with a Phased Implementation and Targeted Approach
2. Autonomy in the Use and Investment of Funds
3. Adequacy of Benefits and its Perceptions
4. Technology and Communication
5. Addressing Low Starting Salaries
6. The Need to Act Quickly

5 How Thai government can build trust

1. Increase Transparency and Accountability
2. Enhance Public Education and Communication
3. Leverage Digital Technology for Accessibility and Transparency
4. Expand Deposit Insurance and boost financial literacy
5. Emphasize Long-Term Benefits and Sustainability

